Academy da Cavalaria

Teaching the history of horsemanship and the art of riding well.

By the words of the accomplished horseman and 15th century Portuguese King, Dom Duarte, "This art brings, besides other advantages, courage to the heart."

Remaining dates for 2008 :
August 30, September 6 & 20 and October 25

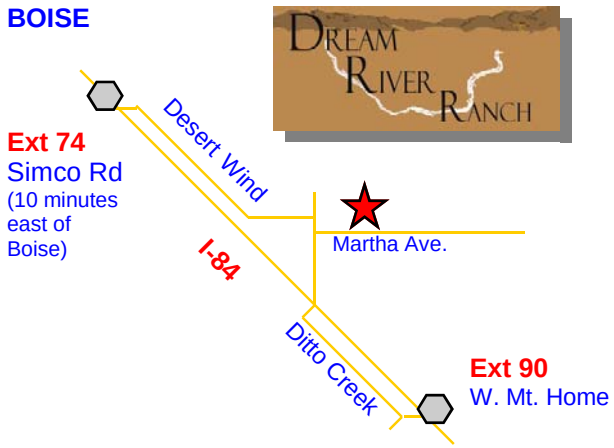
10:00 a.m. Challenge Tournament of Swords and Spears. Arena opens at 9:00 a.m. Entrants must be members of the SCA*. Full dress and appropriate weapons required. No entry fee. Prize to the best over-all score.

11:00 a.m. Medieval equestrian gaming 101: Non-members and members are welcome. Introduction to alternative fun for you and your horse. Authorizations rides to follow. Children 10-17-yrs may ride and must be in the presence of their parent. No entry fee.

Rental horses available. Please call Willa at one of the listed phone numbers for rates.

*Society for Creative Anachronism www.sca.org

Dream River Ranch

On the Oregon Trail in Oasis, Idaho
(25 minutes east of Boise)


www.DreamRiverRanch.org
208-796-2228 or 208-602-3265